VII. GENERAL INFORMATION AND FEES

Zoning classification and permitted uses is governed by the Zoning Ordinance, (text and zoning map). Certain land uses are allowed in each zoning district “by right” and others are allowed “conditionally.” If the use is allowed “by right”, you have the right to use the property without zoning action subject to the regulations and ordinances of the city. If the proposed use is not allowed “by right” but is allowed by “conditional Use” the Board of Aldermen must approve the conditional use. If the proposed use is not allowed at all, you may ask the city to “rezone” the property.

The Board uses criteria given in Section V and the Comprehensive Plan Land Use Map to help determine whether the action you are proposing is in the overall public interest of the city and whether the rezoning and/or conditional use will negatively affect surrounding property.

Rezoning of property and approval of conditional uses both require a public hearing by the Planning Commission and the Board of Aldermen. You should contact the Planning Director by phone or e-mail to arrange a meeting, determine the current zoning of property and the uses permitted, and the zoning action process.
